ENTITLED

The Regulation of Utilities (Bailiwick of Guernsey) Law, 2001

THE STATES, in pursuance of their Resolution of the 26th January, 2000^a, have approved the following provisions which, subject to the Sanction of Her Most Excellent Majesty in Council, shall have force of law in the Bailiwick of Guernsey.

PART I OFFICE OF THE DIRECTOR GENERAL

Establishment of the Office of the Director General.

1. ...

NOTES

Part I, and section 1 thereof, were repealed by the Guernsey Competition and Regulatory Authority Ordinance, 2012, section 22, Schedule 3, paragraph 2, with effect from 1st June, 2012.¹

The following case has referred to this Law:

Cable and Wireless Guernsey Limited v. Office of Utility Regulation (Director General), Guernsey Airtel Limited and Wave Telecom Limited 2007-08 GLR N-7.

PART II GENERAL DUTIES OF THE STATES AND THE [AUTHORITY]

General duties.

2. In exercising their respective functions and powers [under this Law and any Sector Law], the States and [the Guernsey Competition and Regulatory

^a Article I of Billet d'État No. II of 2000.

Authority ('the Authority') shall each have a duty to promote (and, where they conflict, to balance) the following objectives –

- (a) to protect the interests of consumers and other users in the Bailiwick in respect of the prices charged for, and the quality, service levels, permanence and variety of, utility services,
- (b) to secure, so far as practicable, the provision of utility services that satisfy all reasonable demands for such services within the Bailiwick, whether those services are supplied from, within or to the Bailiwick,
- (c) to ensure that utility activities are carried out in such a way as best to serve and contribute to the economic and social development and well-being of the Bailiwick,
- (d) to introduce, maintain and promote effective and sustainable competition in the provision of utility services in the Bailiwick, subject to any special or exclusive rights awarded to a licensee by [the Authority] pursuant to States' Directions,
- (e) to improve the quality and coverage of utility services and to facilitate the availability of new utility services within the Bailiwick, and
- (f) to lessen, where practicable, any adverse impact of utility activities on the environment, and, in performing the duty imposed by this section, the States and [the Authority] shall have equal regard to the interests of the residents of all islands of the Bailiwick.

NOTES

In Part II, the words in square brackets in the heading thereto were substituted by the Guernsey Competition and Regulatory Authority Ordinance, 2012, section 22, Schedule 3, paragraph 2, with effect from 1st June, 2012.

In section 2, the words in the first, second, third and fourth pairs of square brackets were substituted by the Guernsey Competition and Regulatory Authority Ordinance, 2012, section 22, Schedule 3, respectively paragraph 3(a), paragraph 3(b), paragraph 3(c) and paragraph 3(d), with effect from 1st June, 2012.

States Directions.

3. (1) The States may, on the recommendation of the [Committee for Economic Development] made after consultation with [the Authority], by Resolution give to [the Authority] directions (referred to in this Law as "States' Directions") specifying –

- (a) the identity of the person to whom the first licence containing a universal service obligation is to be awarded under a Sector Law,
- (b) any special or exclusive rights to be awarded to any licensee, and the term of such rights, which in the case of telecommunications networks or telecommunications services shall not exceed a period of 5 years,
- (c) the scope of any universal service obligation, and
- (d) any requirements to be imposed on licensees in the light of any international obligations to which the Bailiwick may from time to time be subject, and, in exercising [its] [functions and powers under this Law and any Sector Law], [the Authority] shall comply with States' Directions except where to do so would be in contravention of the duty imposed on [it] by section 2 [or by any other enactment].

[(1A) The States may, on the recommendation of the [Committee for Economic Development] made after consultation with [the Authority], and without prejudice to the provisions of subsection (1), by Ordinance give [the Authority] directions of a strategic or general nature including, without limitation, directions concerning the priorities to be taken into account by [it] in the exercise of [its] [functions and powers under this Law and any Sector Law] in respect of any utility service.

(1B) References in this Law, however expressed, to States' Directions include references to directions under subsection (1A).]

(2) The [Committee for Economic Development] shall consult the Policy and Finance Committee of the States of Alderney and the [Policy and Performance Committee] of the Chief Pleas of Sark in relation to any recommendation as to States' Directions [...].

NOTES

In section 3,

the words "Committee for Economic Development" in square brackets, wherever occurring, were substituted by the Organisation of States' Affairs (Transfer of Functions) Ordinance, 2016, section 2, Schedule 1, paragraph 1(a), with effect from 1st May, 2016;²

the words "the Authority" in square brackets, wherever occurring, were substituted by the Guernsey Competition and Regulatory Authority Ordinance, 2012, section 22, Schedule 3, paragraph 4(a), with effect from 1st June, 2012;

the words "it" and "its" in square brackets, wherever occurring, were substituted by the Guernsey Competition and Regulatory Authority Ordinance, 2012, section 22, Schedule 3, paragraph 4(b), with effect from 1st June, 2012;

the words in, first, the fifth pair of square brackets in subsection (1) and the fifth pair of square brackets in subsection (1A) and, second, the eighth pair of square brackets in subsection (1) were substituted by the Guernsey Competition and Regulatory Authority Ordinance, 2012, section 22, Schedule 3, respectively paragraph 4(c) and paragraph 4(d), with effect from 1st June, 2012;

subsection (1A) and subsection (1B) were inserted, and the words omitted in the third pair of square brackets in subsection (2) were repealed, by the Regulation of Utilities (Bailiwick of Guernsey) (Amendment) Law, 2007, respectively section 2 and section 3, with effect from 9th November, 2009;

the words in the second pair of square brackets in subsection (2) were substituted by the Sark General Purposes and Finance Committee (Transfer of Functions) (Guernsey) Ordinance, 2015, section 3, with effect from 25th June, 2015.³

The functions, rights and liabilities of the Sark General Purposes and Finance Committee and of its Chairman arising under or by virtue of this Law were transferred to and vested in, respectively, the Sark Policy and Performance Committee and its Chairman by the Sark General Purposes and Finance Committee (Transfer of Functions) (Guernsey) Ordinance, 2015, section 1, with effect from 25th June, 2015, subject to the savings and transitional provisions in section 2 of the 2015 Ordinance.⁴

The following Ordinance has been made under section 3:

Regulation of Utilities (States' Directions) (Bailiwick of Guernsey) Ordinance, 2012.

PART III FUNCTIONS AND POWERS OF THE [AUTHORITY]

Functions of the [Authority].

4. (1) [For the purposes of this Law and any Sector Law the functions of the Authority] shall be –

- (a) to advise the States generally in relation to utility activities through the office of the [Committee for Economic Development],
- (b) to grant and renew, or to refuse to grant and renew, licences in a manner consistent with States' Directions and the provisions of this Law and any relevant Sector Law,
- (c) to monitor, enforce, modify, suspend, revoke or consent to the surrender of licences in a manner consistent with States' Directions and the provisions of this Law and any relevant Sector Law,
- (d) subject to subsection (3), to determine and to prescribe the fees and levies payable on an application for, or the grant or renewal of, or over the term of, a licence and the interest and penalties payable in the event of default in the due payment of fees or levies,

- (e) to receive and to conduct inquiries and investigations (which may include inspections of any part of a utility network) and to hear complaints by any person regarding utility activities, and
- (f) to exercise such other functions as may be assigned or transferred to [it] by or under [this Law or] any Sector Law [...].

[(2) The Authority shall exercise its functions and powers under this Law and any Sector Law –

- (a) in accordance with the principles for economic regulation for the time being specified in the Regulation of Utilities (States' Directions) (Bailiwick of Guernsey) Ordinance, 2012, and
- (b) in a manner which is –
 - (i) subject to the exception set out in section 3(1), consistent with States' Directions and the provisions of this Law and any relevant Sector Law, and
 - (ii) proportionate to the Bailiwick's circumstances.]

(3) The fees, levies, interest and penalties which may be determined and prescribed by [the Authority] under subsection (1)(d) shall be of such an amount as may be necessary to defray the costs and expenditure incurred or anticipated by [the Authority], over the term of the licence in question, in connection with the exercise of [its] functions and powers [under this Law and any Sector Law].

(4) The States may, on the recommendation of the [Committee for Economic Development] made after consultation with [the Authority], by Resolution assign or transfer to [the Authority] such other functions and powers as the States may decide are necessary or expedient in relation to the regulation of utility activities.

(5) [The Authority] may refrain, in whole or in part, and conditionally or unconditionally, from the exercise of [its] functions and powers [under this Law and any Sector Law] where to do so would in [its] opinion be consistent with the duty imposed on him by section 2.

NOTES

In Part III, the word in square brackets in the heading thereto was substituted by the Guernsey Competition and Regulatory Authority Ordinance, 2012, section 22, Schedule 3, paragraph 5, with effect from 1st June, 2012.

Powers of the [Authority].

5. (1) The [Authority] may, having regard to the provisions of sections 2, 3 and 4, do anything that appears to [it] to be necessary or expedient for the purpose of exercising [its] functions and powers [under this Law or any Sector Law] and, without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, [it] shall have power

- (a) to determine the conditions to be included in a licence,
- (b) to require the production of such documents, accounts or information from applicants for licences, licensees and other interested persons in relation to utility activities within such time periods or at such intervals as the [Authority] may require,
- (c) subject to any provision to the contrary in this Law or any Sector Law, to publish information, reports and other documents,
- (d) subject to the provisions of States' Directions, to determine which universal service obligations may be imposed on a licensee and on what conditions, and how and by whom such obligations should be funded,
- (e) to give directions to a licensee concerning utility activities in cases where [it] is authorised to do so by or under this Law, any Sector Law or any condition of a licence,

- (f) where provided for in any Sector Law, to determine when and in respect of which utility activities a person may be made exempt from an obligation to obtain a licence,
- (g) to impose any direction, requirement or other sanction under this Law or any Sector Law,
- (h) to appoint any person or body to advise [it] in relation to the exercise of any of [its] functions and powers [under this Law or any Sector Law], and
- (i) to institute proceedings for injunctions under section 6.

(2) The [Authority] may, having regard to the provisions of sections 2, 3 and 4, for the purposes of exercising [its] functions and powers [under this Law or any Sector Law] –

- (a) acquire, lease, encumber, dispose of, exchange, invest or otherwise allocate any movable or immovable property and any interest in it and raise capital from banks and other financial institutions whether in the Bailiwick or elsewhere by way of mortgage, overdraft or otherwise, with or without security, and
- (b) enter into any contract, including any contract of insurance, or make any arrangement with any person.

(3) ...

NOTES

In section 5,

the word in square brackets in the marginal note thereto was substituted by the Guernsey Competition and Regulatory Authority

Ordinance, 2012, section 22, Schedule 3, paragraph 7(a), with effect from 1st June, 2012;

first, the word "Authority" and, second, the words "it" and "its" in square brackets, wherever occurring in subsection (1), were substituted by the Guernsey Competition and Regulatory Authority Ordinance, 2012, section 22, Schedule 3, respectively paragraph 7(b)(i) and paragraph 7(b)(iii), with effect from 1st June, 2012;

the words "under this Law or any Sector Law" wherever occurring in, first, subsection (1) and, second, subsection (2) were substituted by the Guernsey Competition and Regulatory Authority Ordinance, 2012, section 22, Schedule 3, respectively paragraph 7(b)(ii) and paragraph 7(c)(ii), with effect from 1st June, 2012;

first, the word "Authority" and, second, the word "its" in square brackets, wherever occurring in subsection (2), were substituted by the Guernsey Competition and Regulatory Authority Ordinance, 2012, section 22, Schedule 3, respectively paragraph 7(c)(i) and paragraph 7(c)(iii), with effect from 1st June, 2012;

Power to obtain injunctions.

6. (1) If on the application of the [Authority] the Court is satisfied that –

- (a) there is a reasonable likelihood that a person will contravene –
 - (i) a provision of a Sector Law which prohibits, except under the authority of a licence, any utility activity,
 - (ii) a condition of a licence, or
 - (iii) a direction or requirement of the [Authority] under a Sector Law, or
- (b) a person may have been guilty of such a contravention and there is a reasonable likelihood that the contravention will continue or be repeated, the Court may grant an injunction restraining the contravention.

(2) An injunction under subsection (1) may be granted on such terms and conditions, and may contain such incidental, ancillary, consequential or supplementary provision, as the Court thinks fit.

(3) An application by the [Authority] for an injunction under this section may, with the approval of the Court, and on such terms as the Court may direct, be made ex parte.

(4) In this section "the Court" means –

(a) where the person against whom the injunction under this section is sought is within the jurisdiction of the Court of Alderney or the Court of the Seneschal of Sark, the Court of Alderney or, as the case may be, the Court of the Seneschal of Sark,

(b) in any other case, the Royal Court.

(5) The powers conferred upon the Royal Court by this section are in addition to and not in derogation from the powers conferred by the Law Reform (Miscellaneous Provisions) (Guernsey) Law, 1987^b; and the provisions of Parts I and V of that Law (apart from section 1(1) and (7)) shall apply in relation to injunctions of the Royal Court under this section.

NOTE

In section 6, the word "Authority" in square brackets, wherever occurring, was substituted by the Guernsey Competition and Regulatory Authority Ordinance, 2012, section 22, Schedule 3, paragraph 8, with effect from 1st June, 2012.

Confidentiality.

^b Ordres en Conseil Vol. XXX, p. 145.

7. (1) Any document or information from which an individual or body may be identified and which is acquired by the [Authority] in the exercise of [its] functions and powers [under this Law or any Sector Law] shall be regarded as confidential by the [Authority] and by [its] [members, officers and servants].

(2) No document or information of a description referred to in subsection (1) may be disclosed without the consent of every individual who, and every body which, can be identified from that document or information, except to the extent that its disclosure is expressly authorised or required by or under this Law or any Sector Law or appears to the [Authority] to be necessary –

- (a) to enable the [Authority] to exercise [its] functions and powers [under this Law, any Sector Law or any other enactment],
- (b) in the interests of the investigation, detection, prevention or prosecution of crime,
- (c) in connection with the discharge of any international obligation to which the Bailiwick may from time to time be subject,
- (d) to assist, in the public interest, any authority that appears to the [Authority] to exercise, in a place outside the Bailiwick, functions or powers corresponding to [its], or
- (e) to comply with an order of a court.

(3) Without prejudice to subsections (1) and (2), any document or information communicated to the [Authority] by a committee of the States shall, if that committee so requests, be regarded as confidential by the [Authority] and by [its] [members, officers and servants]; and no such document or information shall be disclosed except –

- (a) in compliance with an order of a court, or

- (b) with the leave of that committee, for any reason set out in paragraphs (a) to (d) of subsection (2).

(4) A person who discloses any document or information or who causes or permits the disclosure of any document or information in contravention of this section shall be guilty of an offence and liable –

- (a) on conviction on indictment, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years, or to a fine, or to both, or

- [(b) on summary conviction, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three months, or to a fine not exceeding level 5 on the uniform scale, or to both.]

(9) The States may by Ordinance amend the provisions of this section.

NOTES

In section 14, subsections (1) to (8) were repealed by the Regulation of Utilities (Bailiwick of Guernsey) (Amendment) Ordinance, 2007, section 2, with effect from 28th March, 2007, subject to the savings in section 17 of the 2007 Ordinance.

The following Ordinance has been made under section 15:

Regulation of Utilities (Bailiwick of Guernsey) (Amendment) Ordinance, 2007.

Right of appeal.

15. (1) A person aggrieved by a decision of the [Authority] made in the exercise of [its] functions and powers, being a decision of a description set out in subsection (2), may (subject to the provisions of any Sector Law) appeal against the decision to [the Royal Court] on any of the grounds set out in subsection (3).

(2) The decisions of the [Authority] against which an appeal shall lie under this section are, subject to the provisions of any Sector Law, decisions of the following descriptions –

Consolidated text

- (a) to refuse to grant a licence,
 - (b) to impose a licence condition,
 - (c) that a licensee has a dominant position in a relevant market,
 - (d) to amend or modify a licence,
 - (e) to revoke a licence, or
 - (f) to impose a direction, requirement or other sanction under this Law or any Sector Law.
- (3) The grounds of an appeal under this section shall be –
- (a) that an error of law has been made,
 - (b) that a material error as to the facts has been made,
 - (c) that there was a material procedural error, or
 - (d) that there was some other material irregularity, including unreasonableness or lack of proportionality.
- (4) An appeal under this section shall be instituted –
- (a) within a period of [56 days (or such further time as the Royal Court may in its absolute discretion, on an application made before the expiration of that period, allow, where it is satisfied that it is not reasonably practicable for the appeal to be instituted within that period or that it is otherwise in the interests of justice to do so)] immediately following the date of the [Authority's] decision,

(b) by summons served on the [Authority] stating the grounds and material facts on which the appellant relies.

(5) On an appeal under this section, [the Royal Court] may –

(a) dismiss the appeal, or

(b) quash the decision of the [Authority], and, where [the Royal Court] quashes the decision of the [Authority], it may remit the matter to [the Authority] with a direction to reconsider it and reach a decision in accordance with the findings of [the Royal Court].

(6) The effect of a decision to which an appeal under this section relates shall not, except where [the Royal Court] orders otherwise, be suspended in consequence of the bringing of the appeal.

(7) The [Authority] may, where an appeal under this section is not determined by [the Royal Court] within a period of three months immediately following the date of the summons by which the appeal was instituted, apply to [the Royal Court], by summons served on the appellant, for an order that the appeal be dismissed for want of prosecution; and upon hearing such an application [the Royal Court] may –

(a) dismiss the appeal or dismiss the application (in either case upon such terms and conditions as [the Royal Court] may direct), or

(b) make such other order as [the Royal Court] considers just.

[(7A) For the purposes of determining an appeal under this section, the Royal Court –

- (a) may appoint one or more assessors to assist it, and
- (b) is properly constituted by the Bailiff sitting unaccompanied by the Jurats.]

(8) The States may by Ordinance amend the provisions of this section.

[(9) The Royal Court may by Order make rules dealing with all procedural matters arising under this section (and any such rules may amend, modify or disapply any provision of this section).

(10) Rules under subsection (9) may without limitation make provision as to the practice and procedure to be followed by, and the powers to be available to, the Royal Court in hearing and determining an appeal under this section and as to other ancillary matters relating to proceedings under this section.]

The following Ordinance has been made under section 22A:

Guernsey Competition and Regulatory Authority Ordinance, 2012.

General provisions as to subordinate legislation.

23. (1) Any Ordinance or rule under this Law –
- (a) may be amended or repealed by a subsequent Ordinance or rule, as the case may be, hereunder,
 - (b) may contain such consequential, incidental, supplementary and transitional provision as may appear to be necessary or expedient, and
 - (c) may, in the case of an Ordinance, and without limitation, contain provision –
 - (i) as to the creation, trial and punishment of offences,
 - (ii) amending any provision of this Law,
 - (iii) ...

(2) Any power conferred by this Law to make any Ordinance or rule may be exercised –

- (a) in relation to all cases to which the power extends, or in relation to all those cases subject to specified exceptions, or in relation to any specified cases or classes of cases,

- (b) so as to make, as respects the cases in relation to which it is exercised –
 - (i) the full provision to which the power extends, or any lesser provision (whether by way of exception or otherwise),
 - (ii) the same provision for all cases, or different provision for different cases or classes of cases, or different provision for the same case or class of case for different purposes,
 - (iii) any such provision either unconditionally or subject to any prescribed conditions.

(3) The [Committee for Economic Development] (and any other committee of the States) shall, before recommending the States to agree to make an Ordinance under section 14(9) or 15(8) [or 22A], consult the [Policy and Performance Committee] of the Chief Pleas of Sark and the Policy and Finance Committee of the States of Alderney in relation to the terms of the proposed Ordinance; but a failure to comply with this subsection shall not invalidate any Ordinance made under those sections.

[(4) In this section the expression "rule" includes an order.]

NOTES

In section 23,

sub-paragraph (iii) of paragraph (c) of subsection (1) was repealed by the Regulation of Utilities (Bailiwick of Guernsey) (Amendment) Ordinance, 2007, section 12, with effect from 28th March, 2007, subject to the savings in section 17 of the 2007 Ordinance;

the words in the first pair of square brackets in subsection (3) were substituted by the Organisation of States' Affairs (Transfer of Functions) Ordinance, 2016, section 2, Schedule 1, paragraph 1(a), with effect from 1st May, 2016,¹⁵

the word, figures and letter in the second pair of square brackets in subsection (3) were inserted by the Regulation of Utilities (Bailiwick of Guernsey) (Amendment) Law, 2007, section 11, with effect from 9th November, 2009;

the words in the third pair of square brackets in subsection (3) were substituted by the Sark General Purposes and Finance Committee (Transfer of Functions) (Guernsey) Ordinance, 2015, section 3, with effect from 25th June, 2015;¹⁶ subsection (4) was inserted by the Guernsey Competition and Regulatory Authority Ordinance, 2012, section 22, Schedule 3, paragraph 21, with effect from 1st June, 2012.

The functions, rights and liabilities of the Sark General Purposes and Finance Committee and of its Chairman arising under or by virtue of this Law were transferred to and vested in, respectively, the Sark Policy and Performance Committee and its Chairman by the Sark General Purposes and Finance Committee (Transfer of Functions) (Guernsey) Ordinance, 2015, section 1, with effect from 25th June, 2015, subject to the savings and transitional provisions in section 2 of the 2015 Ordinance.¹⁷

In accordance with the provisions of:

- (i) the Post Office (Bailiwick of Guernsey) Law, 2001, section 48(3), and*
- (ii) the Telecommunications (Bailiwick of Guernsey) Law, 2001, section 34(3),* the provisions of this section shall apply to Ordinances under, respectively, section 48(1) and section 34(1) of those Law as they apply to an Ordinance under this Law.

Service of documents.

24. (1) Any document other than a summons to be given or served under or for the purposes of this Law or any Sector Law may be given or served –

- (a) on an individual, by being delivered to him, or by being left at, or sent by post or transmitted to, his usual or last known place of abode,
- (b) on a body corporate with a registered office in the Bailiwick, by being left at, or sent by post or transmitted to, that office,
- (c) on a body corporate without a registered office in the

Consolidated text

Bailiwick, by being left at, or sent by post or transmitted to, its principal or last known principal place of business in the Bailiwick or, if there is no such place, its registered or principal office outside the Bailiwick,

- (d) on an unincorporated body, by being given to or served on any partner, member, manager or officer thereof in accordance with paragraph (a), or by being left at, or sent by post or transmitted to, the body's principal or last known principal place of business in the Bailiwick or, if there is no such place, its principal or last known principal place of business elsewhere,
- (e) on the [Authority], by being left at, or sent by post or transmitted to, the principal offices of the [Authority] in Guernsey,
- (f) ...

and in this section –

- (i) the expression "by post" means by registered post, recorded delivery service or ordinary letter post, and
- (ii) the expression "transmitted" means transmitted by electronic communication, facsimile transmission or other similar means which produce [or enable the production of] a document containing the text of the communication: in which event the document shall be regarded as served when it is received.

(2) If a person notifies the [Authority] of an address for service within the Bailiwick for the purposes of this Law or any Sector Law, any document to be given to or served upon [it] may be given or served by being left at, or sent by post or transmitted to, that address.

(3) If service of a document cannot, after reasonable enquiry, be effected in accordance with this section, the document may be served by being published in La Gazette Officielle on two occasions falling in successive weeks, and a document served under this subsection is sufficient if addressed to the person for whom it is intended.

(4) Subsections (1) to (3) are without prejudice to any other lawful method of service.

(5) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsections (1) to (4) and of any other rule of law in relation to the service of documents, no document to be given to or served on the [Authority] [...] under or for the purposes of this Law or any Sector Law shall be deemed to have been given or served until it is received.

(6) If a person upon whom a document is to be served under this Law is a minor or person under legal disability, the document shall be served on his guardian; and if there is no guardian, the party wishing to effect service may apply to the Royal Court (or the Court of Alderney or the Court of the Seneschal of Sark, if appropriate) for the appointment of a person to act as guardian for the purposes of this Law or any Sector Law.

(7) A document sent by post shall, unless the contrary is shown, be deemed for the purposes of this Law and any Sector Law to have been received –

- (a) in the case of a document sent to an address in the United Kingdom, the Channel Islands or the Isle of Man, on the third day after the day of posting,
- (b) in the case of a document sent elsewhere, on the seventh day after the day of posting, excluding in each case any non-business day within the meaning of section 1(1) of the Bills of Exchange (Guernsey) Law, 1958, as amended^g.

(8) Service of any document sent by post shall be proved by showing the date of posting, the address thereon and the fact of prepayment.

NOTES

In section 24,
