REPEALED

(Approved by Chief Pleas on 5th July, 2007.)

The Transfer of Funds (Sark) Ordinance, 2007

THE CHIEF PLEAS OF SARK, in exercise of the powers conferred upon them by sections 1 and 4 of the European Communities (Implementation) (Bailiwick of Guernsey) Law, 1994^a and of all other powers enabling them in that behalf, hereby order: –

PART I

INFORMATION TO ACCOMPANY TRANSFERS OF FUNDS

Application.

1. (1) Subject to subsection (2), this Ordinance applies in relation to transfers of funds in any currency which are sent or received by a payment service provider established in Sark.

(2) This Ordinance shall not apply to the transfers of funds set out in the Schedule.

Information accompanying transfers of funds and record keeping.

2. (1) Subject to sections 3, 4 and 9 a payment service provider must ensure that transfers of funds are accompanied by complete information on the payer as set out in subsection (2).

(2) Complete information on the payer shall consist of the name, address and account number of the payer except that –

(a) the address of the payer may be substituted with his

date and place of birth (where relevant), his customer identification number or national identity number, and

- (b) where the payer does not have an account number, the payment service provider of the payer shall substitute it with a unique identifier, which allows the transaction in question to be traced back to that payer.

(3) Subject to the following provisions of this section, the payment service provider of the payer must, before transferring any funds, verify the complete information on the payer and such verification must be on the basis of documents, data or other information obtained from a reliable and independent source.

(4) In the case of transfers of funds from an account, the payment service provider of the payer may deem verification to have taken place if –

- (a) it has complied with any relevant requirements in regulations for the time being in force under section 49 of the Proceeds of Crime Law^b relating to the verification of the identity of the payer in connection with the opening of that account and the keeping of information obtained by that verification, or
- (b) the payer is an existing customer and it is appropriate to do so taking into account the risk of money laundering or terrorist financing occurring.

^b Order in Council No. VIII of 1999; as amended by Order in Council No. II of 2005; Ordinance XXVIII of 1999; Ordinance XII of 2002; Ordinance XXXIII of 2003; G.S.I. No. 27 of 2002; and certain sections of the Law are modified in their application to external confiscation orders by Ordinance XXXIII of 1999.

(5) Where a transfer of funds is not made from an account, the payment service provider of the payer must verify the information on the payer only where –

- (a) the amount transferred exceeds 1000 Euros, or
- (b) the transaction is carried out in two or more operations –
 - (i) that appear to the payment service provider of the payer to be linked, and
 - (ii) which together exceed 1000 Euros.

(6) The payment service provider of the payer shall keep records of the complete information on the payer for five years from the date of the transfer of funds in question.

Transfers of funds within the British Islands.

3. (1) Subject to subsection (2), where both the payment service provider of the payer and the payment service-provider of the payee are situated in the British Islands, a transfer of funds need only be accompanied by –

- (a) the account number of the payer, or
- (b) where there is no such account number, a unique identifier which allows the transaction in question to be traced back to the payer.

(2) The payment service provider of the payer shall, upon request from the payment service provider of the payee, make available to the payment service provider of the payee complete information on the payer within 3 working days excluding the day on which the request was received.

Batch file transfers from the British Islands to outside the British Islands.

4. Where there is a batch file transfer from a single payer where any payment service provider of the payee is situated outside the British Islands, section 2(1) shall not apply to the individual transfer of funds which is bundled together for transmission, provided that –

- (a) the batch file contains the complete information on the payer in question, and
- (b) the individual transfer carries the account number of the payer or a unique identifier,

Detection of missing information on the payer.

5. A payment service provider of a payee must –

- (a) in the messaging or payment and settlement system used to effect a transfer of funds, detect whether the fields relating to information on the payer have been completed using the characters or inputs admissible within the conventions of that messaging or payment and settlement system,
- (b) have effective procedures in place to detect whether the following information on the payer is missing –
 - (i) for transfers of funds where the payment service provider of the payer is situated in the British Islands, the information required under section

3, and

- (ii) subject to subparagraph (iii), for transfers of funds where the payment service provider of the payer is situated outside the British Islands—
 - (A) complete information on the payer, or
 - (B) where relevant, the information required under section 9, and
- (iii) for batch file transfers where the payment service provider of the payer is situated outside the British Islands, the complete information on the payer but only in the batch file and not in the individual transfers bundled therein.

Transfers of funds with missing or incomplete information on the payer.

6. (1) If a payment service provider of a payee becomes aware, when receiving transfers of funds, that information on the payer required under this Ordinance, is missing or incomplete then, it must, subject to subsections (2) and (3) –

- (a) reject the transfer,
 - (b) request from the payment service provider of the payer the complete information on the payer, or
 - (c) take such other steps as the Commission may by order direct.
- (2) Notwithstanding the requirement in subsection (1), the payment service provider of the payee must comply with any relevant requirements of any other enactment relating to money laundering or terrorist financing.

(3) The payment service provider of the payee, in deciding whether or not to reject the transfer or request complete information, must take into account any relevant guidance issued by the Commission.

(4) Where a payment service provider of a payer regularly fails to supply information on the payer required under this Ordinance, the payment service provider of the payee must –

- (a) notify the Commission and a police officer of that fact, and
- (b) take steps to attempt to ensure that such information is supplied and such steps may initially include the issuing of written warnings and written deadlines regarding the supply of the required information.

(5) If, following the taking of steps under subsection (4), a payment service provider of a payer still regularly fails to supply the required information on the payer, the payment service provider of the payee must –

- (a) reject any future transfers of funds from that payment service provider, or
- (b) decide whether or not to restrict or terminate its business relationship with that payment service provider.

Risk-based assessment and record keeping.

7. (1) Where information on the payer accompanying a transfer of funds is missing or incomplete, the payment service provider of the payee must take this into account in assessing whether the transfer of funds, or any related transaction, is suspicious, and whether, accordingly, a disclosure is required to be made by it or a nominated officer –

(a) under Part I of the Disclosure Law^c, and

(b) under Part III of the Terrorism Law^d,

(2) The payment service provider of the payee shall keep records of any information received by it on the payer for five years from the date of the transfer of funds in question.

Keeping information on the payer with the transfer.

8. Subject to section 9, any intermediary payment service provider must ensure that any information received by it on the payer that accompanies a transfer of funds is kept with that transfer.

Technical limitations.

9. (1) This section applies where the payment service provider of a payer is situated outside the British Islands and the intermediary payment service provider is situated within the British Islands.

(2) An intermediary payment service provider may use a payment System with technical limitations to send a transfer of funds to a payment service provider of a payee except that where it is aware that information on the payer which is required under this Ordinance is missing or incomplete it must comply with subsection (3).

^c Approved by resolution of the States on 30th May 2007.

^d Order in Council No. XVI of 2002 as amended by Order in Council No. XIII of 2006.

(3) Where an intermediary payment service provider becomes aware, when receiving a transfer of funds, that information on the payer required under this Ordinance is missing or incomplete, it may only use a payment System with technical limitations if –

- (a) it notifies the payment service provider of the payee that the information is missing or incomplete through –
 - (i) a payment or messaging system, or
 - (ii) another procedure, and
- (b) the system or procedure is agreed between the intermediary payment service provider and the payment service provider of the payee.

(4) Where an intermediary payment service provider uses a system with technical limitations, it shall, upon request from the payment service provider of the payee, make available to the payment service provider of the payee, all information on the payer which it has received, within 3 working days excluding the day on which the request was received.

(5) Where an intermediary payment service provider uses a system with technical limitations it must keep records of any information on the payer received by it for five years from the date of the transfer in question.

(6) In this section "technical limitations" means technical limitations which prevent information on the payer accompanying transfers of funds.

Cooperation obligations.

10. (1) Payment service providers shall comply fully and without delay with –

- (a) any requirement or warrant to provide information or documents pursuant to [section 25, 26(1), 26A,] 28 or 29 of the Banking Law, 1994^e as applied by section 11,

PART II ENFORCEMENT

Monitoring and enforcement-information seeking powers.

11. (1) The provisions of sections 25 (power to obtain information and documents)[, 26(1) (power of Bailiff to grant warrant) and 26A (powers conferred by Bailiff's warrant granted under section 26)] of the Banking Law shall apply –

- (a) to payment service providers who send or receive transfers of funds to which this Ordinance applies as they apply to licensed institutions within the meaning of that Law,
- (b) in relation to such information as the Commission may reasonably require for the purpose of effectively monitoring or ensuring compliance with the requirements of this Ordinance as they apply in relation to such information as the Commission may reasonably require for the performance of its functions under that Law, and
- (c) as if section 25(11) of that Law also allowed the powers referred to in that section to be exercised if the Commission considers that it is desirable to do so in the interests of effectively monitoring or ensuring compliance with the requirements of this Ordinance, except that section 25(10) (information required for determining whether person is a fit and proper person) of that Law shall not apply.

(2) Sections 28 (investigation of suspected offences) and 29 (power of entry in cases of suspected offences) of the Banking Law shall apply in relation to an offence under this Ordinance as they apply in relation to an offence under section 1 or 21 of that Law.

(3) Section 44 (cases where disclosure is permitted) of the Banking Law shall apply as if it also permitted the disclosure of information in compliance with, or for the purposes of enabling or assisting a person to comply with, any requirement of this Ordinance.

(4) References in any enactment to [section 25, 26(1), 26A, 28, 29 or 44] of the Banking Law shall be construed as including references to those sections as applied by this section.
